

Homework 1 : Personal Portfolio

CPSC 362.17/18: Foundations of Software Engineering (Fall 2023)

Department of Computer Science, College of Engineering and Computer Science

Product Name	Personal Portfolio
Elevator Pitch	"Welcome to my personal portfolio website, where you can see a showcase of my skills and experience in [specific industry or field]. From [specific type of work or project], to [another specific type of work or project], I have a proven track record of delivering high-quality results. My website is designed to be easy to navigate, showcasing my best work and achievements in a visually appealing way. Take a look and see how I can help you achieve your goals."
Initial Features	Homepage design featuring a clear and visually appealing layout
	About me section including a brief biography, professional summary, and contact information
	Work experience section highlighting past employment and relevant projects
	Skills section displaying a list of technical and soft skills
	Portfolio section featuring a curated selection of past work and projects
	Testimonials section
	Integration with social media profiles, such as LinkedIn and GitHub
	A contact form for potential clients or employers to reach out
	Option to download a resume or CV